WHAT NOW?

Sometimes I wonder what I should do next . . .

I'm really worried about returning to school.

*I'm not sure . . .
Is this what I want?*

Summer is too good to leave behind. . .

But look what's ahead. . .

*School,
books,
faculty,
new faces*

. . . .

by . . .*

*What did I do?
What did I learn?*

Where has time gone?

We all share the same feelings.

We're all here together.

*We've learned to live together, work together,
laugh together*

INVOLVEMENT

These past years we have shared parts of ourselves.

A collage of black and white photographs showing various nursing students in different settings. The photos depict students studying, practicing skills, and interacting with each other. Some photos show students in clinical environments, while others show them in classrooms or social gatherings. The collage is arranged in a non-linear fashion, with photos of different sizes and orientations overlapping each other. The overall theme is the nursing students' journey and experiences.

The Florence Nightingale Pledge

I solemnly pledge myself before God and in presence of this assembly;

To pass my life in purity and to practice my profession faithfully.

I will abstain from whatever is deleterious and mischievous and will not take or knowingly administer any harmful drug.

I will do all in my power to maintain and elevate the standard of my profession and will hold in confidence all personal matters committed to my keeping and family affairs coming to my knowledge in the practice of my calling.

With loyalty will I endeavor to aid the physician in his work, and devote myself to the welfare of those committed to my care.

The Nightingale Cap

The cap of the University of Maryland School of Nursing carries with it a colorful history which every graduate of the school is proud to relate. Our school was founded in 1889 by Miss Louisa Parsons, who was a student of Florence Nightingale at St. Thomas Hospital in London, England. When Miss Parsons was preparing to come to this country, Miss Nightingale gave her a pattern of a cap and point d'esprit lace, and the privilege of bestowing it upon the nurses of the first school of nursing of which she was to become the Superintendent of Nurses. By that fortunate privilege, the University of Maryland School of Nursing inherited the Nightingale cap.

During Miss Parsons' administration, this cap was worn by both students and graduates. Each nurse was required to make, launder and flute her own cap. In 1900, Mrs. Kathryn Taylor became Superintendent of Nurses, and she, considering the long hours and arduous work the nurses were required to do, designed a simpler and less elaborate cap of organdy and ruching for the student nurses.

Although not entirely similar, the Nightingale cap has been patterned after the cap of St. Thomas Hospital and the point d'esprit lace is still procured from England. There have been little changes made in the pattern; however, the style of wearing has been altered, no doubt due to changes in hair style. The first caps were worn farther back upon the head. The caps are made with the crown and the double rows of fluting threaded to adjust to the individual head.

The graduates of the University of Maryland School of Nursing respect and honor the tradition of their beautiful and unique, fluted point d'esprit cap.

University of Maryland School of Nursing Pin

The pin of the class of 1894 was adopted as the official pin of the Alumnae Association at its incorporation in 1903. The original design, submitted by Tiffany's in New York, is in the form of a St. George's cross which includes the University of Maryland colors of black, gold and maroon. The caduceus design in the center of the cross depicts a serpent representing wisdom entwined around a chalice symbolizing "the wise presiding over decoctions of medicine". The pin bore the inscription "Nurses' Alumni Association, University of Maryland."

In 1970 the Association offered its historic pin to the School of Nursing as an official emblem. In accordance with this action, in recent months the lettering of the pin has been changed to read School of Nursing, University of Maryland. The basic design of the pin remains the same.

*"It's good to be a seeker, but sooner or later
you have to be a finder.
And then it is well
to give what you have found, a gift into the world for whoever will accept it."*

Jonathan Livingston Seagull

Speak gently: It is better far
To rule by love than fear;
Speak gently: Let no harsh words mar
The good we might do here.

Speak gently to the little child
Its love be sure to gain,
Teach it in accents soft and mild
It may not long remain.

Speak gently to the aged one,
Grieve not the careworn heart;
The sands of life are nearly run,
Let such in peace depart.

Speak gently, kindly to the poor;
Let no harsh tone be heard.
They have enough they must endure
Without an unkind word.

Speak gently to the erring; know
They must have toiled in vain;
Perchance unkindness made them so,
Oh, win them back again.

Best of Luck Class of '76
PARSONS FIVE

Find out why Sinai Hospital is called The Nurses' Hospital.

Sinai Hospital is the place for your first job. And for every job after that.

Smoothing out the rough edges on your perspective. Helping you to fully understand that moment when those undergraduate or nursing school persuasions suddenly seem dream-like in the face of real need. Showing you that by becoming a nurse you've made the right decision—you've chosen the right life. Sinai Hospital is for learning...for growing.

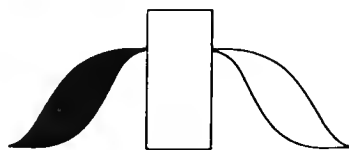

We've provided comprehensive health care for residents of Northwest Baltimore for over a century. Today, as a non-denominational, non-profit, full service community hospital, Sinai is a recognized leader in advanced patient care. We offer the most sophisticated equipment and modern surgical procedures, exceptional specialty areas, and a progressive, thoroughly professional staff.

A leader in ambulatory care, Sinai extends a full range of services including medical-surgical, obstetrics, gynecology, pediatrics, intensive care and coronary care units, recovery room, community medicine, rehabilitation medicine, and psychiatry. We work with 492 beds, 53 bassinets, and over 1900 employees.

The salary range for R.N.'s is between $10,004 and $12,806, with differentials for evening, night and weekend duty. Our nurses receive a fully paid benefit package including Blue Shield, Diagnostic, Major Medical, Retirement, Life Insurance, Dental and Vision Care, and Prescription Drug Plan.

For the R.N. seeking continuing education at nearby colleges and universities, Sinai offers a liberal tuition aid policy.

We invite your inquiry. Call or write

Spirit of '76

Spirit is writing "client" in the nurse's notes instead of "patient" Spirit is getting up at 5 a.m. in order to be at clinic by seven Spirit is lobster hands - 90 second scrubs!
Spirit is typing your concepts paper with fifteen minutes until deadline
Spirit is preparing two twenty page care plans and 37 drug cards only to find that one client is being discharged and the other one died Spirit is returning from Christmas vacation to find your refrigerator lined with fur Spirit is team leading Friday morning after Thursday night at the Inn.
Spirit is watching the elevator go by three times before deciding to take the stairs
Spirit is the 76-day party, Junior/Senior Formal, Stringing, zero-day party, pinning, and graduation Spirit is aceing community health with fictitious families
Spirit is not breaking sterile technique despite a nose itch
Spirit is giving the Juniors a warm welcome, plenty of reassurance and a couple of old care plans
Spirit is wading in knee-deep beer at our infamous mixers
Spirit is conquering ANOVA's, Chi Squares, Pearson Product Moment and other alien statistical terminology Spirit is late night drunken discussions of colostomies as erogenous zones Spirit is reading medication labels three times!
Spirit is that Nursing school weight gain (obesity!?)
Spirit is getting involved in all that goes on!
Spirit is standing for seven hours in new cotton underwear watching a triple bypass Spirit is studying for the last Nursing and Society exam plagued with senioritis and spring fever Spirit is bicentennial excitement!
Spirit is learning to appreciate the graduate cupcake caps and all the work they represent Spirit is realizing that you are not the only one who has forgotten pediatric dosage calculations Spirit is enduring being called "the little student" for two years
Spirit is knowing the answer to a Junior's question
Spirit is stringing uniforms across Lombard Street
Spirit is holding a sleeping infant in your arms
Spirit is compassion, empathy and self-confidence
Spirit is maintaining ideals despite the standards of others
Spirit is our continuing learning process Spirit is Jane/John Q. Public, RN.!

The Senior Class

Graduation . . .

the end is near,

what now?

what will I do with myself? . . .

work?

continue my education?

marry?

I'm really frightened . . .

now . . . I'm on my own . . .

no more school routines,

no more security.

what about my friends?

what will they do?

we'll all be going our own way,

and . . . doing our own thing.

will I remember all those experiences —

we had together which meant so much? . . .

will those memories fade?

it's been a long, but, short two years, and now . . .

I have to move on,

leaving a part of me behind,

a part of my life . . . sometimes,

even though I think it's all over,

I guess . . .

it's really just beginning.
